Weight pull – They came in  packs, they came in packs, all sizes, all colors, all kinds of dog. May 19 2012 Fox Glen Park, Flagstaff Arizona was the center of the excitement. Arizona Mt Musher's hoped to raise money to purchase a safety vest for K-9 dog Leo. Office Bratz the human already has his own vest.

Refreshment, wading pools, lots of dogs, lots of weight, lots of food and fun!

Dogs were light weight, middle weight and some big boys!

Over 300 dollars was raised at the event. There was several hundred already raised in flat contributions. And now we are waiting for the sponsorship funds to arrive.

Sadly the only humans not there were Shirley and Dave Hendricks. For years there paws have coordinated and pioneered our weight pull events. So quickly a hug, to them because we missed you both!

But alas the final results:

Artic wolf-Thomas- two boys Lupo with 500 lbs and Jack with 800

Jeanne and Ranger – the Border Collie at 550

Now stay with me – here are the true facts.

These dogs pulled from 300 pounds up to 1200 pounds! Impressive! So total of all dogs pulled - 13,200 pounds- Here is the big one – The dogs last pull may have been 400 pounds. But he/she had to do it several times to get to those results – Here is what I mean 200 lbs

Next pull	250 lbs
3 rd try	300 lbs
4 th try	350 lbs
Last go	400 lbs

So Technically the dog pulled 1500 lbs total for the day
Now combine- I know it's exhausting but someone's brain has to work like this—

DRUM ROLLS PLEASE DAAA DAAA!!

113,550 pounds

Nap time!

Information is deemed reliable, but my adding could be off. It's hard counting with paws!
